Media Inquiry

Good Morning,

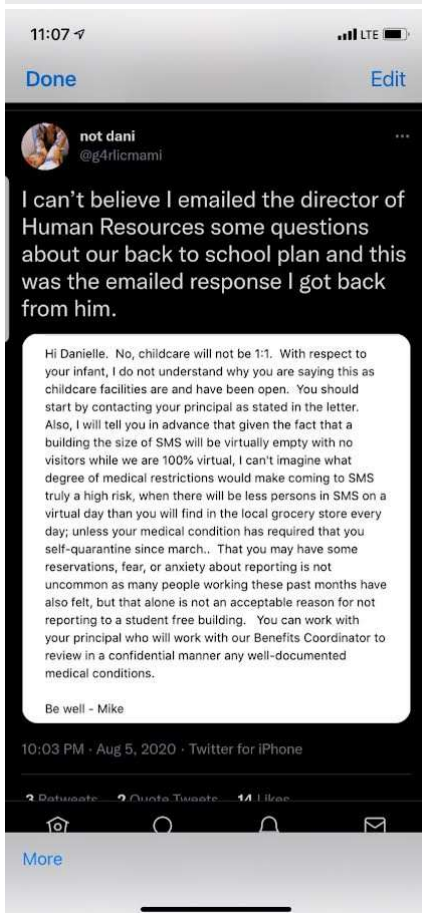

I'm reaching out to get comment on more disturbing social media posts made by middle school teacher, Danielle Cortez. There are several I would like you to look at and respond. One is extremely disturbing describing a situation in which Ms. Cortez and another teacher were involved in discussing ACAB at school. ACAB stands for "All Cops Are Bastards" and is a slogan of the extremist Antifa group.

It is unclear who the other teacher is -- his twitter account is private, however the top of the profile also contains ACAB.

Is this appropriate conversation at PHM schools? Is there a concern that Ms. Cortez could be teaching this kind of hate toward police in her classroom? Does this violate any PHM policies?

Also, are there concerns with any of the other posts below? Do they violate any school policy? Once again, she appears to be pushing gender theory on 7th graders. She also posted direct communication from PHM HR. She is also promoting CRT -- the assumption from that post is that she is incorporating CRT into her lessons, something Dr. Thacker has claimed and promised is not being taught at PHM. That post was on Aug. 4th of this year.

Thank you,
Clifton French
