 - 1:38:21 - 1:41:18 (“... If any adult ever, anywhere, tells my kids that their future, their potential is limited by their ethnicity [laughs], it’s going to take a lot more than the timekeeper bandit to protect them. I’m telling you, nobody is going to tell my kids that their future is limited because of the way they look; that’s disgusting! Nobody, and that’s a direct war on me [points to himself] when you do that and all these other parents. So that’s not going to happen at all ... [talks about arrest of Andy Rutten] ... paying $110,000 to hire some race czar to stir up, to stir up emotion and negativity; is that worth another

$16 million for us to pay? Is that really worth our money to pay more? OK, it's just not worth it. ... [talks more about Andy Rutten arrest]"

11. 7/25/22

22. *9/11/23,

- 27:26 - 30:20
Clifton French speaks virtually. He states he’s not in person at the meeting because “it’s not safe” for his children and the last time he attended a meeting, he was “physically threatened by multiple attendees.”
- 35:12 - 38:07, <https://www.youtube.com/live/P9RGNEcSeck?si=McQfZluB2nI3I6-l&t=2112>
 - 37:25-38:07, BD brings up that PHM have social media guidelines for its employees and that his company has one ... “Let’s update our hiring policy for PHM employees. How about that? Let’s incorporate screening. Let’s screen any publicly available social media into the hiring process, like every single Fortune 500 company does in the nation. Why can’t PHM? I don’t see how that’s controversial. OK, the other one is like Tina said--a social media policy; imagine that. A social media policy with guidelines. A lot of companies have that. The company that I work for, where I’m a safety manager, I have guidelines of what I can do online; why can’t teachers? If you are able to do those two things, there have been a lot of issues that are happening in this community. That’s all I got; let’s keep it classy comrades, Thank you.”

*BD was wearing a black baseball hat with his employer’s name, Pro Services, at the meeting and is wearing that same hat in all of his social media profiles and the majority of his YouTube videos

- 1:46:36 - 1:49:35, <https://www.youtube.com/live/P9RGNEcSeck?si=F0LfnkOTu8m0Kfle&t=6396> (turns to address the audience several times bringing up things that others said before he spoke, raises his voice)
 - *1:47:07 - 1:49:35 BD: “I for one am not going to stand for someone to come up here who can’t even tonight’s agenda and tell me what real news is. You’re not, you’re not, you can’t tell me what real news is if you can’t even sign up to speak on it. I for one would like to thank ‘Real News Michiana.’ Does anybody here actually think that this school board loves ‘Real News Michiana?’ Really? Half the stories are not in favor of the school board. They don’t like ‘Real News Michiana.’”

But they act on the stories like they're true. The stories are true. That's why they have to act on the stories. Because the sources—the stories are filled with original sources that you can't argue with. That's why the school board is acting on these stories. They're true. That's why. They don't like 'Real News Michiana.' So I'd like to thank 'Real News Michiana' for his reporting. Because without his reporting, the concerned parents [inaudible] by them speaking."

Chris Riley interrupts: "Mr. D__"

BD: "Yeah."

Chris Riley: "Please address the Board."

BD: "I'm going to address whoever I want to address, alright. So now I'm addressing this room sir."

Chris Riley attempts to redirect

BD yelling: "No, you're not, you're not going to interrupt me. I'm addressing the room you understand?"

Chris Riley: "You are to address the Board, not the audience."

BD yelling: "I'm addressing the Board and everyone in this room, so I'm going to keep on going. How much time I got? [looking over to Board Attorney] "Good thank you. Anyways, to the Board [points to the Board] , thank you sir. 'Real News Michiana' did the story where he talked about the reading assignments 'White Fragility,' 'How to be an Anti-Racist.' That's race hate. That's the intellectual equivalent of doing a book report on a book like 'Mein Kampf.' It's disgusting. And we got it out of the schools because Clifton reported on it; parents spoke about it. OK. You guys did lessons on implicit bias, inherent racism. Once Clifton reported on it, 'Real News Michiana,' OK, you guys got rid of it, OK. That's results. You guys don't like Clifton, but it's factual, OK. You guys did lessons on microaggressions, microaggressions. You got rid of it once Clifton wrote a story about it. Again you didn't like his story, but the story was true, OK. You did lessons on antiracism, you did the Pyramid of White Supremacy. Those would still be in the curriculum today if it wasn't for 'Real News Michiana.' OK, that's why [pounds podium] we need, we need real media. OK, we need actual reporters doing the job. We need parents [turns around to his group], concerned parents to speak up about what's not right. That's all I got."

Chris Riley: "Thank you Mr. D__. Who's next?"

BD walking back to seat: "Keep it classy [inaudible]"
